VODKA

Gouroff Vodka gives homage to the famous Russian legend about how eight white wolves saved the lives of three explorers lost in the middle of Siberia.

In 1995, after surviving an emergency landing, a group of three explorers found themselves trapped on a glacier in the cold mountains of Koryak. While waiting for a rescue team to arrive, the arctic adventurers saw a sleigh rolled by eight white wolves without a driver coming to them. The three explorers got on the sleigh and the white wolves took them to their camp. These animals saved the lives of these men, who were brothers, and to honor this wonderful adventure, we wanted to give to this vodka their family name: Gouroff.
