

ISLA BONITA

Dark Rum

1859

ORIGINAL DARK RUM

ISLA BONITA

DARK RUM

Legend has it that, in 1859, James Rowney, a pirate lost in the middle of the Caribbean, dreamed up a recipe to create rum. Upon sampling the sugar cane-based liqueur, he declared it a "noble liqueur fit for the Gods!" Later his descendant, John D Taylor, started to sell the rum.

- Dark Rum
- 37,5%
- 70cl & 100cl
- Produced in Europe

Tasting note:

- Nose: notes of caramel with a moderate alcohol heat.
- Palate: flavours of vanilla, cinnamon with a hint of spice on the finish.

Suggestion:

Either neat or to be mixed with cocktail such as a wonderful mojito.

100cl